

Chaplin en musique – Chaplin set to music

Chaplin in The Tramp, The Adventurer and The Boxer: copies of these films have now been restored and at last it's possible to see them properly. Brilliantly funny of course, but also full of romantic pathos, social comedy, and beautifully controlled jokes; so many different emotions are aroused by the sight of this little man who radiates such profound humanity. Accompanying the movies with live music is the outstanding Quatuor Voce together with pianist H el ene Veyrat, artists who have made many recordings and played in prestigious venues. The Quartet loves experimenting with different forms of entertainment and is particularly interested in music for/with film.
