

Sur les bords de la Neva - *On the banks of the Neva

Yet again the beautiful little church at Mortemart will delight us as it vibrates to the lovely quality of young female voices. The Rimsky-Korsakov choir is touring France for the first time since 2016. It preserves the great Russian tradition of choral singing and the young women are as much at ease with orthodox liturgical chants as they are with traditional and popular songs. The choir has won prizes in many international competitions and plays in concerts all over Europe. Come dream with them on the banks of the Neva !
