

Promenades musicales – Musical Promenades

A weekend of deambulation from one village to another in the north of the Haute Vienne, so blessed with beautiful countryside. You can stop to admire the panorama from the top of a hill, unveiling the far distances, old houses, churches, the touchingly modest “patrimoine” of our local landscapes.

Walk, if you feel like it, then take a break in the churches while listening to promising young musicians, future stars of the music scene.

Saxophones: David Ingremeau and Rémi Mazaud
